

Lifting the cross-ownership ban is NOT in the public interest. It would make U.S. media sources less accountable to the public, and dramatically narrow the depth and quality of news available. Please keep the ban in place.